

Breakfast Seminar

The sale of distressed companies or assets

Eversheds O'Donnell Sweeney, Grant Thornton and First Title would like to invite you to a seminar focusing on the sale of distressed companies or assets

In these challenging times, the sale of assets or companies often in distressed circumstances has become particularly difficult to execute in a safe and timely way. This seminar intends to focus on some of the innovative legal solutions that can be brought to bear in such circumstances as well as the role insurance can play in facilitating such transactions. The focus of the seminar will be practical, solutions driven and interactive.

Francis Hackett and Sean Ryan from Eversheds O'Donnell Sweeney will focus on their experience in recent transactions.

Philip Oldcorn from First Title will discuss the benefits that title insurance can bring to the sale of assets and companies particularly in an insolvency situation.

Paul McCann from Grant Thornton will comment on their practical experience in recent insolvency situations and current market developments.
